Sermon & Article Checklist

"A man may be theologically knowing and spiritually ignorant....Let us not satisfy ourselves with a knowledge of God in the mass; a glance upon a picture never directs you to discerning the worth and art of it....When God and his glory our made our end, we shall find a silent likeness pass in upon us; the beauty of God will, by degrees, enter upon our soul." -- STEPHEN CHARNOCK

"A minister may fill his pews, his communion roll, the mouths of the public, but what that minister is on his knees in secret before God Almighty, that he is and no more." --- JOHN OWEN

"Seek not to grow in knowledge chiefly for the sake of applause, and to enable you to dispute with others; but seek it for the benefit of your souls, and in order to practice....Practice according to what knowledge you have. This will be the way to know more... [According to Ps. 119:100] 'I understand more than the ancients, because I keep thy precepts.'" -- JONATHAN EDWARDS

"Impress the young convert from the very beginning with the conviction that God has called him into His kingdom to struggle with the corruptions of his heart." -- WILLIAM B. SPRAGUE

"Sin is naturally exceeding dear to us; to part with it is compared to plucking out our right eyes. Men may refrain from wonted ways of sin for a little while, and may deny their lusts in a partial degree, with less difficulty; but it is heart-rending work, finally to part with all sin, and to give our dearest lusts a bill of divorce, utterly to send them away. But this we must do, if we would follow those that are truly turning to God: yea, we must not only forsake sin, but must, in a sense, forsake all the world, Luke xiv.33 'Whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple.'" -- JONATHAN EDWARDS
